Walk perfectly complement the local heritage and the Lancashire landscape

Garstang is the perfect place to live with an array of shops, restaurants, cafes as well as both traditional and gastro pubs.

Garstang is an attractive market town of equal distance (approx. 16km) between Preston and Lancaster. It is the perfect place to live with an array of shops, restaurants, cafes as well as both traditional and gastro pubs, providing everything you need for everyday life and leisure time.

The vibrant and bustling high street forms the hub of the town, which is both supported and complemented by Garstang's market, which has existed for over 300 years. Together, Garstang's special character has been shaped, with history and culture enriching the town. An 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty', Garstang is surrounded by fells, roaming valleys, moorland, expansive meadows and pockets of woodland.

A region rich in beauty, the breathtaking Forest of Bowland is on the doorstep, as well as the ruins of Greenhalgh Castle. With its picturesque landscape dotted with trail routes, Garstang is a haven for walkers and cyclists, and is perfect for picnics and leisurely strolls, with several famous routes taking in the local Lancashire heritage and wonderful beauty of the River Wyre.

With Garstang Country Hotel & Golf Club close by, as well as local cricket, rugby and football clubs, plus the Arts Centre and Theatre Group, and several well-known parks, such as Millenium Green and Hudson Park, there really is something for everyone.

The North West

Garstang, the world's first Fairtrade Town, benefits from a superb setting in the heart of Lancashire, equal distance from Preston and Lancaster.

The River Wyre runs through the ancient market town, providing plenty of picturesque places for walks, picnics and barbecues, with an abundance of wildlife to see and boat watching. The nearest train station is Salwick and the town enjoys easy access to the A6.

Making the most of its location, Garstang offers homebuyers the exciting opportunity to explore the whole of the North West, with cities such as Liverpool and Manchester within a reasonable distance, and the delightful Lake District a short journey away. The Lytham St Annes, Blackpool and Fleetwood coastline is not too far, whilst the diverse city of Preston is quite quick and easy to get to on the M6. Further afield, both London and Glasgow are accessible by train in just over two hours.
